Opportunity for high school seniors to gain practical knowledge in real world financial situations

- Half-day, hands-on experience where students assume their 25 year-old self and identify a career choice which has an assigned starting salary.
- Students will be given a monthly budget, with the goal being to afford all the required items on a budget worksheet—including saving for retirement—within their monthly salary.
- After they have visited various booths covering these components of independent living, students balance their budget, and then sit down with a financial counselor to review their standing.
